My dear Mr Jennison,

Many thanks for your welcome cheque & tobacco I stood much in need. If the Chemay business had turned out a success I should only have been too happy to have informed you of it; but unfortunately I have heard no more from Mr Thomas since he advised me of having sent an advertisement to the Daily Telegraph in this form, "Next of Kin wanted of William Rawlings, late of Margate London Clerk in a Bank, Married Frances Keets. This has not been answered nor ever will be. Don't you think that Mr Thomas might with a clear conscience claim it for me,
